

National Climate Centre (NCC), India Meteorological Department, Pune has brought out a revised CD ROM containing high resolution daily gridded rainfall data set for the Indian region. The data set contains 35 years (1971-2005) of daily gridded (0.5 X 0.5 degree Lat/ Long) data, interpolated using quality controlled station rainfall data.

This IMD Gridded daily rainfall data CD ROM is available to research community in academic and research institutes. This data set is not meant for any commercial use and applications

Government of India
India Meteorological
Department

High Resolution
(.5° x .5°) Daily
Gridded Rainfall
Data for the Indian Region
1971 - 2005

National Climate Centre

Announcement

N O W A V A I L A B L E

The procedure to obtain this data set is as follows:

1. Fill up the registration form duly signed.
2. Fill up the certificate of undertaking duly signed.

These may be sent to the following address:

National Climate Centre
India Meteorological Department,
Shivajinagar, Pune – 411 005
India.

Once we receive your request, registration form and certificate of undertaking, we shall send the data CD ROM by post.

For further details and to obtain this data set, please contact National Climate Centre, IMD Pune (ncc@indpune.gov.in / lrf@indpune.gov.in).